

of Hyatt Hyderabad, there were many dignitaries who showcased their talent. Azhar's former teammate and left-arm spinner Venkatapathi Raju also took some time off from his busy schedule and strolled onto the first tee at the golf course and sent the ball flying down the fairway.

Besides giving away the prizes, Azhar also took a dig at his friend Raju, affectionately known as 'Muscles'. "Had he (Raju) put the kind of effort into cricket in his playing days that he does in golf, he would have been a much greater cricketer," the former skipper quipped.

BT Golf has grown into one of the country's most sought after golf events co-presented by oil marketing company Indian Oil Corporation and Qatar Airways, with mobility partner MG Motor and tourism partner Rajasthan Tourism. This year, the tournament is being held after a gap of three years because of the Covid-19 pandemic. The next leg of BT Golf will be held at the Prestige Golfshire Club in Bengaluru. BT
