BT GOLF'S BENGALURU EDITION SAW THE CRÈME DE LA CRÈME OF THE CORPORATE WORLD INDULGING IN A CAMARADERIE-FILLED GAME OF GOLF BY TEAM BT

ON THE outskirts of India's Silicon City are the manicured fairways of the Prestige Golfshire Club, where close to a hundred golfers converged on a pleasantly balmy Saturday morning on March 11 for the fourth leg of this year's Business Today Golf tournament presented by Royal Ranthambore. The emerald greens of the picturesque golf course—which has multiple lakes and trees adorned with colourful flowers, and with birds chirping away—provided the perfect conditions for the crème de la crème of Bengaluru's business and corporate golfing talent to spend the morning in a camaraderie-filled game of golf.

As the day progressed, competition heated up with the whirr of the little white ball; the participants showcased their golfing chops with the club and the putter, and put in some spirited performances. Finally, Jayanthi G. Ravi emerged as the winner in the ladies category, while Loy Halder and Kedarnath Mud-
