

① (From left) Pradipta Basu; Ankur Sachdeva; Freddy Williams, runner-up in the 15-24 handicap category; and Dodda Ganesh

② The participants of the Business Today Golf 2022-23 presented by Royal Ranthambore-Bengaluru edition tournament at the Prestige Golfshire Club on March 11, 2023

③ (From left) Ankur Sachdeva; Dodda Ganesh; and Abhijeet Singh, winner of the BT Golf award for the longest drive

④ (From left) Dodda Ganesh; Bijoy Padmanabhan Nambiar; and Sudarshan Maney, winner of the BT Golf award for the straightest drive

⑤ (From left) Dodda Ganesh; Sundarraj Mahadevan, winner of the BT Golf award for closest to pin; Bijoy Padmanabhan Nambiar; and Alok Nair

⑥ (From left) Ankur Sachdeva; Arvind Rathore, BT Golf award runner-up in the 0-14 handicap category; and Dodda Ganesh

⑦ Jagannath A.L., Head of Marketing & Partnerships, Thoughtworks

⑧ David D' Souza, Managing Director, Garden City Fashions

da won the trophy in the 0-14 and 15-24 handicap categories, respectively, at the invite-only tournament, co-presented by Qatar Airways, Indian Oil XP 100, with Morris Garages as mobility partner, Rajasthan Tourism as tourism partner and O3+ as the event's gifting partner.

Dodda Ganesh, former Indian cricketer and now senior Air India official, was the day's chief guest; he also expressed his desire to play at the event next time. Ganesh, who had dabbled in golf during a county cricket stint in the UK during the 1990s, later spent some quality time at the driving nets and putting green in trying to sharpen his skills. Some good practice indeed!

Several other dignitaries, including Varun Berry, Executive Vice Chairman and MD of Britannia Industries; Ajay Kanwal, Managing Director & CEO of Jana Small Finance Bank; and Srikanth Doranadula, Group Vice President at Oracle, were also seen exhibiting their skills.

Speaking to BT later, Jayanthi said the initiative was a welcome break from the crunch of the corpo-