

A HUMANITARIAN ICON: DR. CHANDAN AGARWAL

An academician, entrepreneur, social activist and a Samaritan, Dr. Chandan Agarwal is a true leader at heart, an intellectual marvel and a learner for life whose perennial quest for knowledge and an unparalleled vision has led him to achieve global recognition. Hailing from Begusarai, Bihar, Dr. Chandan Agarwal carved his way to excellence for himself as he went to pursue an MBA from NMIMS, Mumbai and further an honorary Doctorate Degree (PhD) from the renowned International University of America, London.

A zealous educationalist, Dr. Chandan Agarwal appeared on the pedagogical landscape with the inception of the G.D. Goenka Public School, Kanpur in 2013, which was later followed by G.D. Goenka Toddler House, Lucknow and G.D. Goenka La Petite, Kanpur. He has since done wonders for the education sector in the region, adopting an enterprising social approach to come up with the best practices from across the world in his group of schools and institutions and was appointed the Advisor for higher education to Hon. Governor of Bihar in 2021. In the same year, he was also chosen as the Special Advisor to Bihar Cricket Association affiliated to BCCI and further, as the Trade Commissioner of Cuba to Uttar Pradesh to maintain harmonious International Relations for his outstanding efforts in the domain. Dr. Chandan Agarwal's patriotic fervour and the urge to pay back to the society also led him to adopt ten girls under the banner of Sarthak Foundation in Lucknow whereby he oversees their education and medical expenses.

A proud recipient of D.Litt from USA and the Certificate of Commitment issued by the World Book of Records, London, Dr. Chandan Agarwal firmly believes in one's life having no limitations except the ones made by a person himself and aims to lead with examples having consistently made
