

BUSINESS STALWART AND LEADER: VENKATARAMANI SURESH

A versatile entrepreneur and a phenomenal leader, Mr. Venkataramani Suresh is the Co-founder and Chief Business Officer of Karkinos Healthcare Private Limited. Post his graduation in Engineering and post-graduation in Management from Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, Mr. Suresh pursued various Management Development programs in institutes of eminence viz., The Wharton Business School, Pennsylvania, The Indian School of Business, Hyderabad, and the Tata Management Center in Pune, thereby forging his illustrious career trajectory ahead.

After an enlightening experience in his first professional stint at Xerox, Mr. Suresh appeared on the entrepreneurial landscape building India's foremost and numero uno Internet company, Naukri.com. His exceptional diligence and conscientiousness towards his work played a vital role in Naukri.

com becoming India's no.1 job portal and the most successful internet business in India. He built the company from scratch and scaled the business to over 125 million USD (8 billion INR) and managed a team of over 1000 people spread across India and GCC countries in a short span of time. His intellect, hardwork, commitment, positive attitude and leadership style led him to essay the role of an academic advisor and speaker in many Business Schools and leadership forums viz. NASSCOM, CII across India and GCC countries while also playing an instrumental role in conceptualizing and driving new business processes.

Having donned many hats over the last 27 years of his professional journey, Mr. Suresh has embarked on a mission to address the cancer burden of the society at large through Karkinos HealthCare, a digital oncology platform providing personalized cancer care solutions. An exemplary leader with notable foresight, focus, determination and passion, his contributions have been acknowledged and recognised across various leading national and international journals. He is all set to further scale greater heights as one of the most enterprising entrepreneurs transforming cancer care in India and beyond.

MR. VENKATARAMANI SURESH
Co-founder and Chief Business Officer

DEVELOPING ASIA'S LARGEST COACHING AND MENTORING PLATFORM FOR PROFESSIONALS: DEEPSHIKHA KUMAR

MS. DEEPSHIKHA KUMAR, Founder & CEO, SpeakIn

A lumna of the Indian School of Business, Ms. Deepshikha Kumar is the founder and CEO of SpeakIn, Asia's largest digital platform for professional education and one on one coaching which delivers lessons on over 500 topics, taught by more than 18,000 experts and 1000 coaches and mentors on topics spanning the breadth of professional learning. Deepshikha founded SpeakIn in 2018 with a vision to create an open talent economy, providing a space to both aspiring as well as existing professionals to have an access to the pioneers with an accomplished expertise.

An epitome of hard work, resilience, grit and determination, Deepshikha holds more than 15 years of experience in management and business consulting with leading global organisations viz. Accenture, Ernst & Young and JD Power and currently oversees SpeakIn's global and regional expansion from Singapore. Deepshikha also serves as an honorary faculty for multiple leading Business Schools and actively writes on industry interests for Economic Times and other associated journals. An intellectual with a strong educational backing and an equally empathetic and empowering nature, Deepshikha is also a proficient TEDx Speaker and host of the Asia Dialogues forums. She has also recently published her first book titled '101 Lessons to be a Damn Good Speaker!' in 2021 which has been touted as the official SpeakIn guide to becoming a world class speaker.

Having being awarded the 2020 Top 100 Women Entrepreneurs by the Ministry of MSME, Government of India and the 2021 Google Digital Women Award in Leadership, Deepshikha is undoubtedly one of the most respected and enterprising entrepreneurs of our times.