

REVIVING AGRICULTURE: THE AGRIPRENEUR BEHIND GROWPITAL RITURAJ SHARMA

Rituraj Sharma, the founder of Growpital, is on a mission of "Cultivating the future of Agriculture - one investment at a time". He is dedicated to connecting 'India to Bharat' by providing access to all the resources and services required to improve the livelihood of farmers and at the same time, making agri-investment a profitable option for the investors. His company, Growpital, provides investment opportunities in agriculture projects that generate the highest possible returns while mitigating risks through diversification of crop plantation and various farming techniques. Rituraj's passion for agriculture can be traced back to his 7 years of research in the industry before establishing Growpital just one year ago.

Growpital's farm projects are technology-driven and process-oriented, leading to high yields of better quality produce. Investors on the platform can directly impact the agricultural industry while also gaining assured, tax-free and consistent returns through carefully designed investment options. The funds and resources invested by Growpital go towards diversified farm projects, ensuring the right resources and services are provided to mitigate risks and achieve operational goals.

The company's success is evident in its 21 Crore+ AUM generation, 2000+ user base addition, 2K+ Acres of land acquisition (with another 5K+ in the pipeline), and 500+ farmer lives impacted in the year 2022 itself. The company has established a presence in 6 states and has even secured contracts with international companies like McCain and PMV Malting for commercial production and is also looking to explore tea and coffee plantation projects.

Rituraj Sharma is revolutionizing the industry through Growpital. With a successful track record and partnerships with major players in the industry, Rituraj is showing that investing in agriculture can be a smart and impactful decision. He is determined to continue his mission of connecting India to Bharat and creating a sustainable future for agriculture.

A DIGITAL MEDIA VISIONARY: GAUTAM BHIRANI

MR. GAUTAM BHIRANI
Founder, Eyetalk Media Ventures & TagTalk

Founder of Eyetalk Media Ventures & TagTalk, Mr. Gautam Bhirani is a marketer at heart and an entrepreneur by choice whose unrelenting attitude in life has brought him unparalleled recognition and laurels within a short career span. A true visionary, he identified opportunities in the digital media early on during the surge in smartphones in the years 2010-11 and built Digital Out of Home (DOOH) platforms with an idea to break the visual clutter by launching non-intrusive seamless new screen experiences for consumers.

An ex-cricketer, Mr. Bhirani built his first business at the age of 23, however, soon had to re-build from scratch at 27 after a setback. Undeterred, he embraced the transition in all its glory and manifested and gave rise to what is deemed to be one of India's most successful integrated digital media companies of the day. Spearheading Indian OOH industry's digital transformation, Mr. Bhirani launched Eyetalk Media Ventures & TagTalk in 2017. Eyetalk Media Ventures reaches over 6 million Millennials & Gen-Z daily through its location-based connected screen network across restaurants, hotels, pubs, workplaces, premium gyms, colleges and more. TagTalk has become India's most trending DOOH network crossing 10 million content shares as of January 2023 via Instagram.

A self-made entrepreneur, Mr. Bhirani has, since, cemented his name in the Indian advertising industry and has received adulation and acknowledgement as one of the Most Influential Leaders in the Out-of-home (OOH) advertising industry by multiple leading national and international business media journals. Having pioneered some of the most astonishing initiatives in India's flourishing digital media ecosystem so far, the '40 under 40' and 'Youth Icon' awardee is extremely bullish on both DOOH and Creator Economy being the most powerful marketing media in the times to come. Looking forward, Mr. Bhirani is all set to launch services in the Middle East region and has astonishingly made his way to become one of the top 10 enterprising Indian entrepreneurs to look forward to in 2023.
