

DR. CHIDATMIKA KHATUA & THE ART OF LIVING A LIFE THAT MATTERS

Look out for a person who believes that living a purpose-filled committed life is far better than just making a living. The chances are you will bump into Dr. Chidatmika Khatua. For her, the central purpose of her life is to guide life decisions, influence behavior, shape goals, and offer a sense of direction to countless people who look up to her as an inspiration.

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua was born in a value-centered & disciplined family of Baleshwar village of Odisha. Her mother Smt. Sanjukta Khatua has been a home maker and her father Late. Shri. Natabara Khatua headed the Finance department at Power Grid Corporation of India Ltd.

CEO, Sushruta hospital and trauma care and MD, Orissa Cosmetic Surgery Clinic, which stand as National repue for unique surgeries and high-quality treatment with low cost. This hospital also empannel with BSKY for treatment of poor patients Free of cost

Dr chidatmika also iniciator of Medical tourism in Odisha ,and managing Trustee of Aryabhata institute of education and technology for state and central govt welfare projects

A man of principles and ethics, her father was also a homeopathy medicine practitioner who provided free service to the villagers. His commitment and dedication to service mankind, sowed the seeds of humility, virtue, humanitarian value in Chidatmika.

With an MBA in Entrepreneurship and a PHD in International Business, Chidatmika has dedicated to the upliftment of various downtrodden communities of Odisha. From supporting people to realize their fundamental rights of food, health, and shelter, she has powered initiatives like the Hunger-free Odisha or livelihood initiatives through SWA AAHAR under So Am I Foundation.

Chidatmika's life mission is around making possibilities happen for all. Valuing equality and integrity, she is committed to living a purpose-filled life by making opportunities for all, irrespective of gender, caste or creed, and standard of living. She has been actively working across areas and initiatives at the local, state, national and international level. She engages and closely works with individuals, institutions and government bodies at all levels. She has an in-depth understanding about the working of Government and the Workflow processes. With a strong domain expertise in micro planning, execution and monitoring, she also harnesses her resources to successfully raise funds for the projects that are close to her heart.

A visionary leader Chidatmika has been driving change and bringing positive transformations in society, since 1996, by dint of her hard work and indefatigable energies. When she believes in a project, she backs it up with her limitless and infectious enthusiasm, getting people to join her in making it a success story.

➤ DR. CHIDATMIKA KHATUA, CEO, Sushruta hospital and trauma care and MD, Orissa Cosmetic Surgery Clinic

Hunger-Free Odisha is an ambitious project that Chidatmika is committed to. Her So Am I Foundation Trust (SAI - a non-for-profit organization) is driving this mission to make Odisha hunger-free by 2030. The basic objective of the initiative is to fight against hunger and malnutrition and control food wastage in the state by channelizing excess food from individuals, weddings, restaurants, corporate offices.

Another unique initiative launched by Chidatmika is, Adi Rani - India's first tribal queen contest. Her brainchild, this value-based initiative is aimed at showcasing the rich tribal culture and tradition of India and is supported by the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes Department, Government of Odisha and the State Tourism Department. Dr. Khatua is the founder of Kalinga Gaurav, an organization committed to unearthing hidden talent from the interiors of Odisha that organized the first ever Kalinga Adi Rani contest in Bhubaneswar.

A philanthropist, social activist and a dynamic Social Entrepreneur, Chidatmika has been relentlessly working towards every cause & initiative that supports the life and living of people, especially the underprivileged and indigenous groups of Odisha. Her efforts and her achievements have attracted a lot of national and international awards and accolades. Some of the latest ones include :

State Awards – 2020

- LITEROMA NARI SAMMAN at Kolkata on the eve of women's day.
- ODISHA WOMEN EXCELLENCE AWARDS on the eve of women's day by Bright Odisha

International Awards - 2020

- DOCTORATE OF PHILOSOPHY (TRIBAL DEVELOPMENT) by Commonwealth Vocational University, Kingdom of Tonga.
- International Peace Award for Social work on the eve of birthday of world envoy Nelson Mandela.
- Certificate from Harvard University Entrepreneurship in Emerging Economies.

Dr. Chidatmika Khatua is an inspiration. She is changing lives. She is setting an example for us to do our best to make the world a better place.

www.chidatmikakhatua.com