audience that would prefer to watch a movie on OTT. Amit Sharma, MD of cinema chain Miraj Cinemas, says the reason for mediocre/small-budget Hindi films not doing very well is also because of them being released directly to OTTs. "In the last few years, the maximum number of direct-to-OTTs is from Bollywood. Telugu and Tamil films held back their releases for the theatre, and it is paying off in a big way," he says.

If Bollywood producers and exhibitors are to be believed, then upcoming releases that are expected to perform well at the box office will prove that this was just a dull phase, or as a famous Bollywood flick put it: 'picture abhi baaki hai, mere dost! [the movie is still not over, my friend]'. BT
