

Medica Hospitals

Providing excellence in healthcare delivery in the east

Medica Group of Hospitals is one of the most reputed and leading healthcare chains in eastern India today. The group was founded in the late 1990s by Dr Alok Roy, Dr Alexander Kuruvilla, Udayan Lahiry, Ayanabh Debgupta, and Sudhanshu Roy with the objective of making healthcare accessible and affordable to all strata of society.

The group has since developed into a healthcare chain that is at par with the best in the country, both in terms of clinical, as well as technological excellence. The group's flagship unit Medica Superspecialty Hospital at Kolkata (MSH) is one of the premier hospitals in eastern India.

Beginning its journey with the multi-specialty unit Medica North Bengal Clinic (MNBC) in Siliguri in 2008, the Group launched its flagship Hospital – Medica Superspecialty Hospital (MSH) – in Kolkata in 2010. Soon after, Medica Cancer Hospital in Rangapani, Siliguri fulfilled the dire need of a comprehensive cancer facility in North Bengal with advanced radiation therapy services. Medica tied-up with the Jain Samaj for Bhagwan Mahavir Medica Superspecialty Hospital in Ranchi in 2014. Tata Steel Medica Hospital in Kalinganagar, Odisha, began operations in 2015, as a multispecialty unit in collaboration with Tata Steel.

MEDICA SUPERSPECIALTY HOSPITAL, KOLKATA

The 400+ bed Kolkata Hospital, located in Mukundapur, off EM Bypass, is today one of the most respected and trusted healthcare providers in Eastern India. Filling a huge lacuna in tertiary healthcare in the east, Medica has kept its promise of delivering quality healthcare using ethical practices in a transparent set up. The hospital has revolutionized healthcare delivery in the region through not just technological advancements and innovative treatment techniques, but also in the area of patient care.
