

The Chambers at Taj Mahal Hotel New Delhi that reopened last year in a swankier avatar has seen an increase in membership from those below 35 years of age

M

MEMBERS ONLY'. TWO WORDS THAT SPELL luxury by virtue of their exclusivity. These are places where you are pampered, indulgence is the norm and your desire for privacy and exclusiveness is given utmost importance. Welcome to the world of private clubs. With the new generation of CEOs, decision-makers and start-up captains becoming increasingly younger, these sanctums provide an opportunity for networking, unwinding and a much-desired access to A-list events within India and globally.

Sprawled over 20,000 sq. ft at Mumbai's Birla Centurion in Worli, is Jolie's. Founded by 24-year-old Aryaman Vikram Birla, Jolie's "is an eclectic sanctuary that provides its diverse members suppers, soirees, spectacles and the space to express themselves freely and authentically", says its website. Jolie's was inspired by the most exclusive members-only clubs across Europe and the US, such as Annabel's and Sketch in London and the CORE club in New York.

The club which opened its doors late in October last year is built on the idea of a fictional character by the name of 'Jolie', a well-travelled woman who enjoys socialising, networking and believes in living life to the fullest. The space was designed