

THE MIGHTY MIDDLE

THE MIDDLE CLASS IN INDIA IS EXPANDING RAPIDLY. ACCORDING TO RECENT FINDINGS, IT WOULD ACCOUNT FOR MORE THAN 60 PER CENT OF THE COUNTRY'S TOTAL POPULATION BY THE END OF FY47, UP FROM 14 PER CENT IN FY05. RECENT INCOME TAX FILING DATA FURTHER SUBSTANTIATES THIS TREND. A LOOK AT THE NUMBERS:

By RAHUL OBEROI and PRINCE TYAGI
 GRAPHICS BY TANMOY CHAKRABORTY

THE BILLION MEMBER CLUB

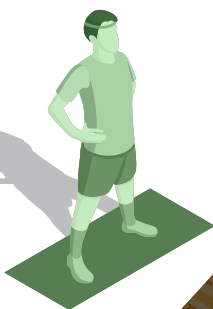

India's middle-class population is expected to grow to over a billion by FY47

- RICH
- MIDDLE CLASS
- ASPIRERS
- DESTITUTES

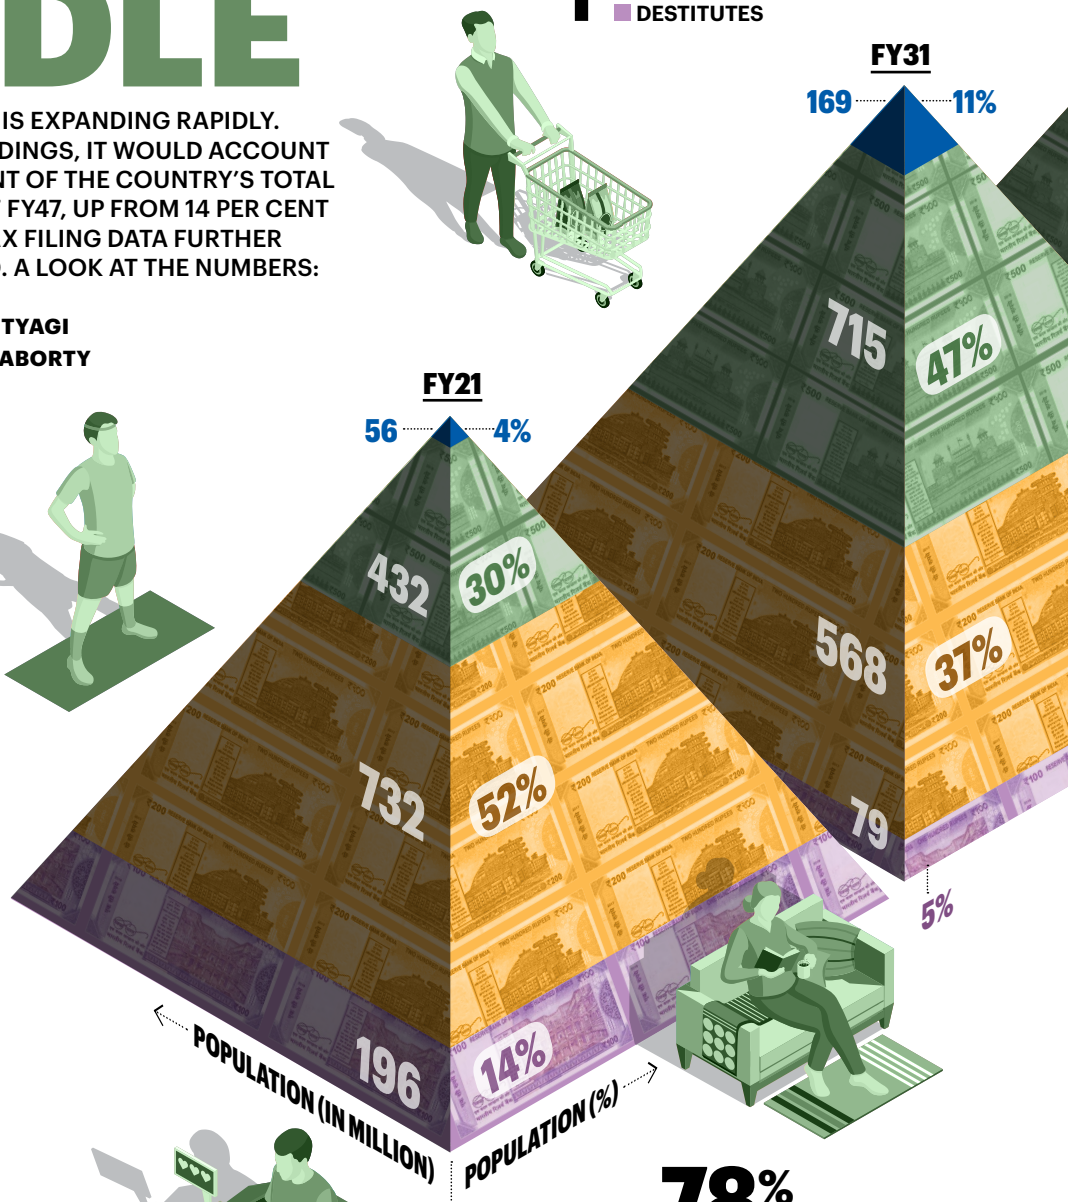

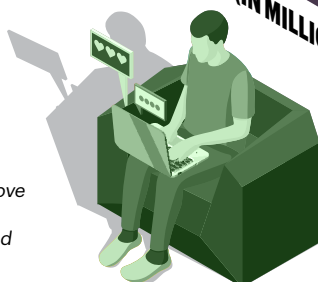

12 |

₹14.9 LAKH
 ($12,400)

The expected per capita income in India by FY47 compared to ₹2 lakh (around $2,500) in FY23, per SBI Research data

Note At 2020-21 prices; Destitutes: Annual income of less than ₹1.25 lakh; Aspirers: Annual income from above ₹1.25 lakh to ₹5 lakh; Middle Class: Annual income from above ₹5 lakh to ₹30 lakh; Rich: Annual income above ₹30 lakh; FY31 and FY47 are projected figures; Source PRICE's ICE 360° Surveys

78%

Expected workforce (565 million) with taxable base in FY47 compared to 59.1 per cent (313 million) in FY23, as per SBI Research data