► Yes, of course, you can go on a luxury cruise. But do you know what's an even more luxurious way to sail the high seas—a private yacht. It offers you greater flexibility in making an itinerary and access to more secluded ports of call. And, most of all, it promises privacy, exclusivity and personalised service. Your yacht, your rules—so dance under the stars, chill in the jacuzzi, or explore tracks that are off the beaten path. Travel with family and friends, or by yourself—whatever takes your fancy. Rest assured, all your needs will be taken care of. The Mediterranean is hugely popular, led by destinations like Croatia, Greece, Turkey, Italy and Spain. The Caribbean is also a long-time favourite.
