

THE GROWING SUPER-RICH

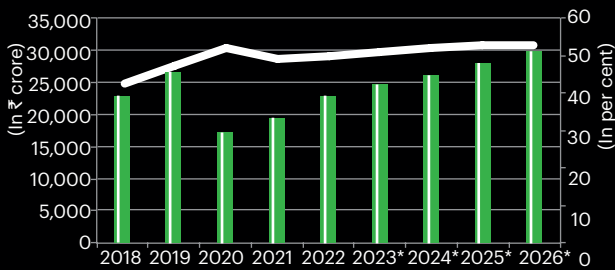

INDIA COULD PRODUCE NEARLY 40 PER CENT MORE UHNIs BETWEEN 2021 AND 2026

*Estimate; Note: Individuals with net worth of $30 million or more are considered as UHNIs; Source: Knight Frank

THE PERSONAL TOUCH

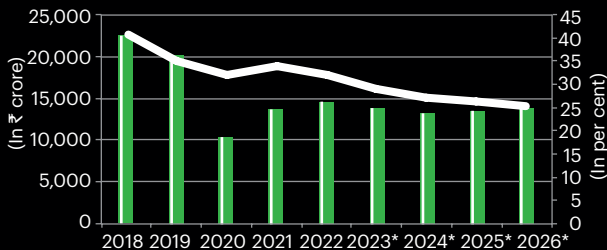

THE SHARE OF PERSONAL LUXURY IN THE OVER-ALL MARKET IS EXPECTED TO RISE TO OVER 50 PER CENT IN THE COMING YEARS

*Estimate; LHS: Size of personal luxury market; RHS: Share of personal luxury in overall luxury goods space; Source: Euromonitor International

GOING OFF TRACK

THE PREMIUM AND LUXURY CARS SEGMENT MAY CONTINUE TO WITNESS A SLOWDOWN

*Estimate; LHS: Size of premium and luxury cars market; RHS: Share of luxury cars in overall luxury goods space; Source: Euromonitor International

$5.83 billion

CURRENT SIZE OF INDIA'S LUXURY GOODS MARKET. THE US HAS THE BIGGEST MARKET ($69.52 BILLION), FOLLOWED BY CHINA ($48.91 BILLION), JAPAN ($26.40 BILLION), FRANCE ($14.56 BILLION) AND THE UK ($13.73 BILLION)

70-80 properties

NUMBER OF LUXURY HOUSES (₹100 CRORE OR ABOVE) SOLD IN THE PAST FOUR-FIVE YEARS, WHICH ARE MOSTLY CONCENTRATED IN DELHI AND MUMBAI, AS PER JLL INDIA

IT'S A RICH MAN'S WORLD

The luxury goods market is an aggregation of four segments—personal luxury, fine wines,

