

The rising number of ultra high net-worth individuals (UHNIs)—that grew 80 per cent between 2016 and 2021—is expected to add bling to the expanding luxury segment in India. Data suggests there is scope for humongous growth in the space. Here are the key numbers:

By RAHUL OBEROI & PRINCE TYAGI
Graphics by RAJ VERMA

champagne and spirits, luxury cars and experiential luxury, as per Euromonitor International

REGAINING LOST GLORY

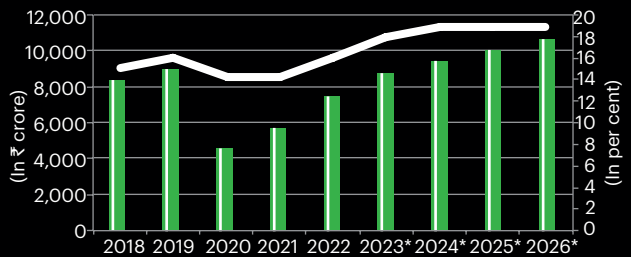

INDIA'S LUXURY GOODS MARKET IS EXPECTED TO RECOVER FROM THE PANDEMIC SETBACK AND CROSS ₹50,000 CRORE BY 2024

*Estimate; Source: Euromonitor International

EXPERIENCE COUNTS

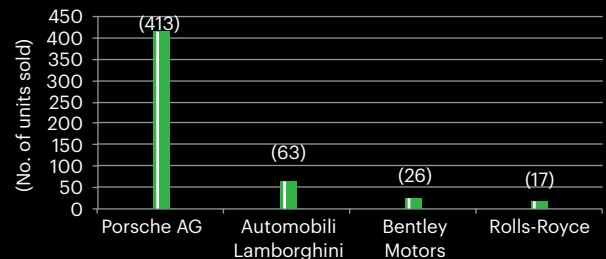

EXPERIENTIAL LUXURY—THAT INCLUDES LUXURY HOTELS AND FOOD SERVICE—IS LIKELY TO CROSS ₹10,000 CRORE IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS

*Estimate; LHS: Size of experiential luxury market;
RHS: Share of experiential luxury in overall luxury goods space;
Source: Euromonitor International

HOT WHEELS

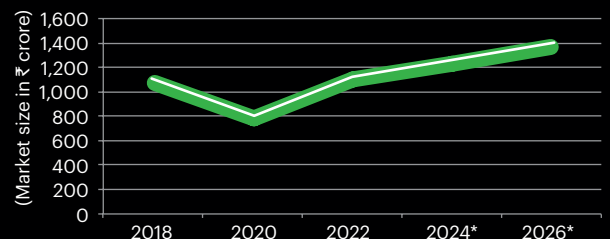

SALES OF TOP LUXURY CAR BRANDS IN THE COUNTRY IN 2021-22

Source: FADA

IN HIGH SPIRITS

THE SIZE OF THE FINE WINES AND LUXURY SPIRITS MARKET MAY CROSS ₹1,200 CRORE BY 2024

*Estimate; Source: Euromonitor International