

per cent stake in the firm—Indivinity Clothing Pvt. Ltd —that houses Tahiliani's fashion house, with the option of increasing it to 51 per cent.

The latest designer in ABFRL's kitty is brand Masaba. The company bought a 51 per cent stake in House of Masaba Lifestyle Private Limited, the entity that houses apparel, non-apparel, beauty and personal care, and accessories businesses under brand 'Masaba' owned by designer Masaba Gupta. The brand is targeting to achieve annual revenues of around ₹500 crore in the next five years. The new offering will include everything from garments and accessories to lifestyle products, with the intention of leveraging the designer's relationship with the new generation of young, digitally influenced consumers. The partnership is focussed on building a scaleable domestic brand for the new generation of digital-first customers.

That is one of the prime reasons for legacy brands joining forces with leading retail companies.

▼

“With Reliance, we hope to go more corporate and systematic. It's basically corporatisation of Indian fashion that's going to happen now. This will help us with the technology and sustainability”

Manish Malhotra

MANAGING DIRECTOR AND
CHAIRMAN, MM STYLES PVT. LTD

PHOTO BY BANDEEP SINGH

