► The Rolex Datejust is the archetype of a classic watch. Launched in 1945, it was the first self-winding waterproof chronometer wristwatch to display the date. The latest versions of the classic come with floral motif dials. Its design comprises 24 flowers, each with a diamond at the centre. Three versions have been launched—with a blue dial, an olive green dial and a silver dial. For the olive green and silver ones, the bezel is set with 46 brilliant-cut diamonds. Truly a classic, reimagined.
