

RY WISHLIST

hades are hoping to be given some respite from long-pending challenges

MARKETS

- ◆ Remove concept of speculative income and bring in limited categories of income arising from capital market transactions—business income, long-term capital gains and short-term capital gains
- ◆ Abolish Securities Transaction Tax and Commodities Transaction Tax or at least reintroduce rebate under section 88E
- ◆ Industry status for Sebi-registered market intermediaries to bring down their cost of funding and ease capital-raising processes
- ◆ Tax exemption of up to ₹1 lakh in short-term capital gains under section 111A of Income Tax Act
- ◆ Threshold limit for tax deducted at source on dividend under section 194 of Income Tax Act be increased from ₹5,000 to ₹10,000 and be applicable on all resident investors

—Ashish Rukhaiyar

PHARMA

- ◆ Extend PLI scheme to pharma MSMEs; provide appropriate Remission of Duties and Taxes on Exported Products (RoDTEP) rates to encourage drug exports
- ◆ Bring more drugs under lowest rate of GST (5 per cent) to reduce drug costs
- ◆ Reduce customs duty to 2.5 per cent on medical devices and remove health cess
- ◆ Extend tax deduction on product development and R&D; 150 per cent deduction in tax on in-house R&D for bringing more new drugs
- ◆ Increase healthcare investment to 2.5 per cent from current 1.25 per cent of GDP. Increase policy support to encourage and facilitate medical value travel to India; develop medical value travel as an organised sector

—Neetu Chandra Sharma

STEEL

- ◆ Faster clearance for mega projects and a conducive ecosystem for promoting domestic steel manufacturing
- ◆ Access to long-term financing, with tenures of 15-20 years, from domestic financial institutions to boost growth of steel makers
- ◆ Levy Border Adjustment Tax (BAT) on import of finished steel products
- ◆ Remove Lesser Duty Rule to simplify imposition of trade remedy measures; empower government to quickly impose such measures
- ◆ Impose anti-dumping and countervailing duties (AD/CVD) to prevent dumping of certain steels at predatory pricing; increase basic customs duty from 7.5 per cent ad valorem to 12.5 per cent for flat steel and 10 per cent for long steel

—Ashish Rukhaiyar

| 37