

KNOW YOUR FACTS

SUSTAINABILITY IS THE BUZZWORD, BUT HOW WELL DO YOU KNOW THE ISSUES CONNECTED WITH IT? HERE'S A CHANCE TO TEST YOURSELF

1 What did Prime Minister Narendra Modi commit to at COP26 in 2021?

- A To achieve net-zero carbon emissions by 2070
- B To increase India's non-fossil energy capacity to 500 GW by 2030
- C To meet 50 per cent of India's energy requirements from renewable energy by 2030
- D All of the above

2 What are Scope 3 emissions?

- A Direct emissions from owned or controlled sources
- B Indirect emissions from the generation of purchased energy
- C Indirect emissions from suppliers, customers, vendors, etc.
- D All of the above.

3 Which sector/industry is the largest greenhouse gas emitter in India?

- A Energy sector
- B Agriculture sector
- C Industrial sector
- D Transport sector

4 How much emission does one unit of carbon credit offset?

- A 1 metric tonne of CO₂ equivalent
- B 2 metric tonnes of CO₂ equivalent
- C 3 metric tonnes of CO₂ equivalent
- D 4 metric tonnes of CO₂ equivalent

5 Which of the following methods can businesses use to reduce emissions?

- A Invest in renewable energy, improve energy efficiency
- B Track and monitor supply chain emissions
- C Reduce waste
- D All of the above

6 How does ESG (environmental, social and governance) reporting benefit a company?

- A Can help attract investors
- B Can help to build customer loyalty
- C Improve operational efficiency, save cost
- D All of the above

7 Which of the following is not a category of ESG funds under Sebi guidelines?

- A Environmental funds
- B Social funds
- C Impact funds
- D Governance funds

8 Sebi has made Business Responsibility & Sustainability Report (BRSR) mandatory for which of the following companies?

- A All listed companies
- B Top 1,000 listed companies by market capitalisation
- C Top 500 listed companies by market cap
- D Top 250 listed companies by market cap

ANS: 1-D; 2-C; 3-A; 4-A; 5-D; 6-D; 7-C; 8-B