

3

6

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

- ① Aroon Purie, Chairman and Editor-in-Chief of India Today Group, addressing the gathering of iconic business leaders
- ② Two titans of India Inc.—Tata Sons Chairman N. Chandrasekaran and Nandan Nilekani, Chairman of Infosys—sharing a candid moment
- ③ (From left) Aroon Purie, Nandan Nilekani, N. Chandrasekaran, Jyotiraditya Scindia, BT Editor Sourav Majumdar and Radico Khaitan COO Amar Sinha unveiling the Best CEOs issue of Business Today
- ④ Jyotiraditya Scindia and Aroon Purie in conversation at the event
- ⑤ Dignitaries and guests listening to a panel discussion with rapt attention
- ⑥ Aroon Purie welcomes N. Chandrasekaran

OLD CHALLENGES, NEW SOLUTIONS

Aayush Ailawadi (left), Technology Editor and Presenter, BT TV, with Swami Gaur Gopal Das, Personal Coach, Monk, Author, Lifestyle & Motivational Strategist

» Author and motivational strategist Swami Gaur Gopal Das said one of the distinguishing qualities of a CEO is the curiosity to always know and learn, and the humility and the vulnerability to say I don't know

» Pointing towards the rapidly changing world, Das said that adaptability is a must to ensure success

» He said empathy in a leader is crucial to leading people because when people are treated well and shown empathy and compassion, they walk the extra mile and do more than what is expected of them

» He also said that it is important for leaders to be firm in their values but flexible in their beliefs, in order to succeed

