THE SKILLS OF AN ENTREPRENEUR

Sourav Majumdar (left), Editor, Business Today, with Ajay Piramal, Chairman, Piramal Group

» Amidst global headwinds that have slowed down the growth of various economies across the world, Ajay Piramal said that India has tailwinds rather than headwinds in the sense that the country has managed to take proactive measures when faced with external challenges

» He added that there was a lot of positive interest in India today as many large investors wanted to invest in the country

» Acknowledging the regulation and compliance burden on businesses, Piramal said that regulations need to come down and in that space, the government is open to suggestions
