

BURNING RUBBER

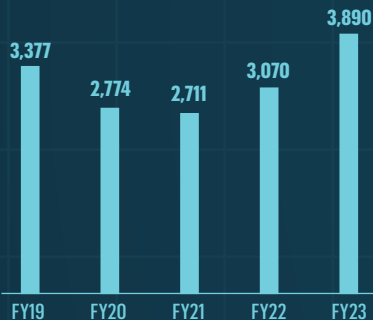

India's automobile sector witnessed impressive growth in FY23, per data from the Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (Siam). This performance is also visible in the stock markets as the BSE Auto index outperformed the benchmark BSE Sensex in the last financial year. However, data shows that although sales of commercial vehicles, two- and three-wheelers are showing an upward trend, they are still below pre-Covid-19 times. A look at the key numbers
