

Capital goods players have emerged as the shining stars of the equity market in the recent past. Thanks to the government's emphasis on infrastructure development, these players have seen tremendous growth in their order books. The subsequent softening in interest rates after the pandemic buoyed their balance sheets as well. Analysts believe order books will remain healthy in the run-up to the general elections, and expect this to be reflected in the firms' bottom lines. A look at the numbers:

By RAHUL OBEROI and PRINCE TYAGI

Graphics by RAJ VERMA

Good Going

THE BSE CAPITAL GOODS INDEX CLIMBED 48 PER CENT IN THE PAST YEAR COMPARED TO THE BSE SENSEX'S 23 PER CENT GAIN

Data has been indexed to 100; Source ACE Equity