

THE COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

Maruti Suzuki India is the leader by a mile in the passenger vehicles segment in India. While it also leads in the CNG space, it still hasn't entered the electric vehicle segment. Here is how it compares with the competition

PV DATA FOR FY22
SOURCE: SIAM

MARUTI SUZUKI INDIA

► CNG Sold 230,000 CNG cars in FY22; nine out of its 15 models offer the CNG option

► EVs First Maruti EV to be launched by 2025

► SUVs The 2022 Maruti Suzuki Brezza and a new mid-size SUV is being planned for launch this year

► PV sales (units)

1,331,558

► PV market share

43.40%

HYUNDAI MOTOR INDIA

► CNG Available in three cars—Aura, Santro and Grand i10 Nios

► EVs Planning to launch Kona EV and Ioniq 5 electric crossover

► SUVs Has planned five new SUVs for the Indian market, which are scheduled to launch this year including fourth-generation Tucson, Creta facelift, and updated Venue

► PV sales (units)

481,500

► PV market share

15.69%

TATA MOTORS

► CNG Sells Tata Tiago and Tigor CNG

► EVs Market leader with over 80% market share; planning to produce 200,000 EVs by 2026; planning to launch five new EVs soon, including Sierra EV, Curvv EV and Punch EV

► SUVs Expected to launch nine cars this year, including SUVs like Sierra, Atmos, Hexa and others

► PV sales (units)

373,138

► PV market share:

12.16%

MAHINDRA & MAHINDRA

► CNG Available in KUV100

► EVs Has eVerito and e2oPlus; planning to launch e-KUV100 this year

► SUVs Working on the new Mahindra Bolero, XUV300, and new-gen Scorpio this year

► PV sales (units)

225,895

► PV market share

7.36%

KIA INDIA

► CNG Expected to launch Sonet CNG

► EVs Expected to get the CBU unit of EV6 to India

► SUVs Launched the brand in India with SUVs like Sonet, Carnival, Seltos; caters to no other segment. Planning to launch Carnival 2022, Sportage and Seltos 2022 in two years

► PV sales (units)

186,787

► PV market share

6.09%