ket investors to take a position in the stock, as opposed to waiting for a change,” says Pai of 3one4 Capital.

Yashish Dahiya, Chairman and CEO of PB Fintech—the parent company of Policybazaar and Paisabazaar—indicated strong confidence in achieving profitability in the next quarter during the earnings call for Q2FY24. “I’m extremely confident that this will be our last quarter of losses. Next quarter we will definitely have profits,” he said. PB Fintech narrowed its consolidated losses by 89 per cent to ₹21 crore for Q2FY24 from ₹187 crore reported a year ago. Revenue from operations grew 42 per cent YoY to ₹812 crore.

“At the cusp of profitability, we anticipate a strong growth in our upcoming two quarters... Largely, we expect a 30 per cent growth in the mid-term revenue through our core business,” Sarbvir Singh, Joint Group CEO, PB Fintech, said.

Logistics firm Delhivery has halved its net losses to ₹103 crore in Q2FY24, with a revenue increase of 8 per cent to ₹1,941.7 crore, despite a slowdown in its primary customer base, the e-commerce sector, due to higher inflation and a funding crunch. And Nykaa reported a 50 per cent jump in consolidated net profit at ₹7.8 crore for Q2FY24. The quarter saw a 22 per cent revenue increase to ₹1,507 crore, partially subdued by a delayed festive season.

The shifting market landscape is poised to inspire those start-ups that have filed their draft prospectuses with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi), as well as those diligently preparing for their future public market debuts. As many as 80 start-ups may hit the public market in the next five years, per a report by consultancy firm RedSeer. Among those gearing up to launch their IPOs are some of India’s most valued start-
