

JACOB & CO THE WORLD IS YOURS DUAL TIME ZONE

► Known for its avant-garde approach to high watchmaking, Jacob & Co has launched a limited edition (only 999 pieces) dual time zone watch in 18k rose gold. Measuring 43 mm in case diameter, it houses a curved blue lacquered dial. The watch face is adorned with three rose gold-hued continents. At the centre of the dial is a compass with the two time zones at 12 and 6 o'clock, respectively. Also outfitted in 18k rose gold is the caseback that features an engraved depiction of the whole world. The watch is geared with the new and exclusive JCAA11 caliber, a self-winding movement that's equipped with 42 hours of running time. It comes with a blue alligator strap with an 18k rose gold pin buckle that corresponds to the watch case. Price: $57,000

BULGARI OCTO FINISSIMO CARBONGOLD

► Among the slimmest mechanical watches in the world, Bulgari's Octo Finissimo line has previously explored materials such as platinum, titanium, rose and yellow gold, and ceramic. Now, the maison combines carbon with rose gold to present a black-grey carbon watch with muted pink-gold highlights. The Octo Finissimo CarbonGold Automatic features the iconic eight-sided case with a 40 mm width and thickness of 6.9 mm, and an octagonal bezel with a rounded addition in carbon. The dial and integrated bracelet are also made from the same material. The exhibition caseback reveals the automatic calibre BVL 138, powered by a platinum micro-rotor, which offers a 60-hour power reserve. Price on request.
