

82 |

BACCARAT HOTEL, NEW YORK

If you happen to be in the Big Apple and are feeling peckish during the long gap between lunch and supper, do check out the afternoon tea at the Baccarat Hotel that has imagined the tea service reflective of those being served in palaces across Europe. Savouries include lobster caviar, salmon roulade and potato confit while there are almond cookies, choux pastries, and chocolate mousse to satisfy your sweet tooth. The Le Petit Prince tea for children includes donuts and waffles.

PRICE: $140 for adults; $80 for children

