TRAVEL ACTS AS a compass to new perspectives for Faiz Shakir, MD of Sales for India & SAARC at cloud computing firm Nutanix, as work takes him on a journey almost every week. But equally important is reconnecting with family, with whom he takes short, rejuvenating getaways every few months. While work takes him to various places in India and abroad, his family getaways lean more towards well-known tourist destinations, giving him a chance to unwind and create lasting memories together.

It was a recent getaway to Japan that reminded him why it is his

“Each trip is an invitation to savour new flavours. The act of breaking bread with locals, conversing over shared meals, and exploring the intricacies of regional flavours has created memories that transcend time and space” favourite destination. “The blend of ancient traditions and modern innovations creates an enchanting atmosphere. From the tranquil gardens and shrines to the bustling cityscapes, Japan’s diverse landscapes never cease to amaze me.” However, what truly sets Japan apart is the warmth and hospitality of its people. “Everywhere we went, we were met with genuine smiles and helpful gestures. The locals’ eagerness to share their culture and assist us in navigating their country made us feel not just like tourists, but like welcome guests. Disneyland was a bonus for my daughter who loved every moment there.”

Moreover, it was in Tokyo that
