

MAHARASHTRA RE-AFFIRMS ITSELF AS THE LEADING INVESTMENT DESTINATION AT DAVOS

WEF 2022: SHOWCASING MAGNETIC MAHARASHTRA

"We made a strong presence at Davos and tried to attract the opportunities to give the state new heights."

Shri Subhash Desai,
Hon'ble Minister Industries

"At WEF, We are all Indians. We are trying to charm investors, of course. But in the end, we are all bringing it [investments] home to India."

Shri Aaditya Thackeray,
Hon'ble Minister Environment

"Investors looked at Maharashtra as a potential destination as we have a conducive ecosystem for the industries"

Shri Dr. Nitin Raut,
Hon'ble Minister Energy

This year WEF 2022, a platform to raise global issues, was organized for the first time after the global hiatus in an in-person format, where countries from Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and North America came together to work on the theme of the event "History at a Turning Point: Government Policies and Business Strategies". India participated with more than 100 participants and political leaders from 5 states including Maharashtra, home to India's financial capital Mumbai. The Maharashtra delegation promoted Maharashtra as an ideal investment destination with an agenda to become a trillion-dollar economy by detailing the business and growth opportunities in the state, while also sharing the state's vision on youth & technology led development, and the state's core objectives on green, renewable and sustainability focused development.
